

During the summer of 2010 the band celebrated its 25th season since re-forming under the name The Mercersburg Area Community Band.

The band commemorated this event by commissioning Gary Fagan of Charlottesville, Virginia, to write a piece of music specifically for the band.

“Mercersburg – A Celebration of People and Place” made its debut during the summer of 2010, and Gary Fagan conducted the piece during the band’s annual performance in the play in a band again, but band members didn't have to belong to the American Legion. Anyone who played an instrument was welcome to join. In time, the name of the band was changed to the Mercersburg American Legion Community Band.

As the 1960's turned into the 1970's, many people began to lose interest in playing in the band. In 1972, the band disbanded and for 14 years its music gathered dust in the old Band Hall off South Main Street.

In 1986, town resident Fred Wagner decided it was time for another community band. Mr. Wagner directed the band for 20 years and changed the band's name to better reflect its membership, naming it the Mercersburg Area Community Band.
